

DAVID LOTT HARDY

Appointment: Chairman

Appointed: September 15, 2005, by Governor Daniels Term Expires: April 2010

Party: Republican

David Lott Hardy was appointed Chairman of the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission on September 15, 2005, by Governor Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr. His term expires in April 2010.

An attorney, Chairman Hardy has practiced law for 40 years concentrating on utility-related issues. His primary practice has been in Indiana and Kentucky where he has been an in-house attorney, a member of a law firm and in private practice. He is a graduate of Indiana University and the Indiana University School of Law in Bloomington.